Middleton Athletes Recognized on the Assembly Floor

MADISON - Today, during a session of the Wisconsin State Assembly, Representative Dianne Hesselbein (D-Middleton) sponsored two Assembly Joint Resolutions to congratulate Middleton athletes and coaches on their State Championships in golf and cross country.

Members of the Assembly and supportive onlookers listened as Rep. Hesselbein spoke before the resolutions were passed.

Assembly Joint Resolution 113 recognized the Middleton High School girls' golf team including Ellie Frisch, Glenna Sanderson, Makenzie Hodson, Katherine Meier, Milanne Dahmen, Amanda Beckman, and their coaches Becky Halverson and Tom Schmitt.

Assembly Joint Resolution 114 recognized the Middleton High School boys' cross country team including Aniket Ahuja, Griffin Ward, Ryan Schollmeyer, Zach Leffel, Egan Johnson, Braedon Gilles, Peter Hoferle, Ethan Mladucky, Ian Bohachek, Thomas Blumer, and their coaches Brian Finnel, Andy Hartman, Alexa Richardson, Joe Prestigiacomo, Brad Meyer, Zach Shoemaker-Allen, and Lauren Dilley.

“It was such an honor to sponsor these two Joint Resolutions on the floor today. I am so proud of these athletes, and have confidence that they all have bright futures ahead. Go Cardinals!” said Representative Hesselbein.

Both teams were welcomed to the floor with a standing ovation as the resolutions passed unanimously.
